An Evening With

MONCHIERO

Wednesday, November 15, 2023 at 6:00 PM

We are excited to feature 4 wines from Monchiero,
Located in Castiglione Falletto in the heart of the Barolo region.
1 white wine & 3 red wines, each an expression of Nebbiolo.

Langhe Arneis - 2021

Well balanced, with hints of minerality & stone fruits, citrus & apple aromas.

90 Points – James Suckling

Nebbiolo d'Alba - 2020

Aged in oak for 12 months producing excellent texture, dry. An aroma with a hint of brushwood.

90 Points – James Suckling

Langhe Nebbiolo - 2020

Aged in oak for 18 months before maturing in the bottle.
Intensive aromas & texture for medium-term storage. Hints of mushroom & truffle.

92 Points – James Suckling

Barolo Rocche - 2017

Nebbiolo grown from a cru in Castiglione Falletto, located in the southeast of the vineyard, yielding a wine with a fine, prominent bouquet and excellent texture.

Aged 3 years in oak and 1 year in bottle prior to release.

93 Points – James Suckling
